Documents required for a B / 1 Work Visa Application

This visa is a tourist visa for those eligible for the Law of Return which allows them to work temporarily.

This type of visa is also granted to foreign workers (who are not eligible for the Law of Return) who want to work in Israel. This visa is usually given to foreign workers working in the fields of construction, agriculture, industry, restaurants, nursing, and other professionals, in accordance with quotas and conditions set by the government every year.

One who wants to employ a foreign worker in Israel must submit an appropriate application and forms for him and makes sure he fulfills the requisite conditions before he enters Israel.

One who is eligible for the Law of Return and has a A / 2 student visa or a A / 4 companion visa and also wants a visa that will enable him / her to work, see the instructions for an A / 1 or A / 4 visa.

These are the documents required for one who is eligible for the Law of Return:

1. A filled out A / S1 visa application. If the application is submitted to a consulate, a filled out K / 1 application.
2. A foreign passport that is valid for six months longer than the visa + a copy.
3. Two passport pictures 5 x 5 cm.
4. A document from a local rabbi testifying that you are Jewish.
